

the place of Chinamen by bringing in Japanese. It takes time to determine whether he will be willing and able to do so. Thus California is in a sort of transitional stage, so far as labor is concerned. Hawaii hitherto has been more familiar with Japanese labor, and also is agitating this problem. Several carloads of southern negro laborers recently have been taken to Hawaii to work the sugar plantations in order to test their efficiency. An equilibrium between the two islands over the Pacific Coast and Hawaiian Islands must eventually be reached. There is a sort of mutual relation existing between these islands and California. The similarity of their conditions and productions seems to demand a close relation of interests. Hawaii is following closely in the footsteps of California in the manner of developing her industrial features. California has to pay about $30 per month for efficient labor in the best fields. Formerly the wages paid were similar to those which obtained in Hawaii a year or two ago, namely $12 to $15 per month. Everything is tending to the same. The industrial situation is not far distant when California and Hawaii will both have paid their laborers substantially the same daily, or monthly, wage.

The department appears to believe this labor problem is one of the most important things to be settled in considering the future of the sugar business. The report, however, makes no suggestion for settlement.

POSTAGE REFORM COMING.

POSTAL-DEPARTMENT WORK.

(BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

NEW YORK, July 12.—A special to the Press from Washington says that Postmaster-General Smith has taken up the question of reform in second-class mail with Atty.-Gen. Knox.

These two Cabinet members agree that there is sufficient warrant in existing law for the rigid enforcement of orders against fake publications which have been admitted to the mails as second-class matter.

A careful study of exports to the Hawaiian Islands indicates that the total for the year will be fully $20,000,000, an this, if added to the total of exports to Asia and Oceania in the eleven months ending May, 1901, were, in round figures, $101,000,000, and those of the corresponding months of the present fiscal year, while to Asia and Oceania there is an apparent reduction of over $20,000,000.

But the reduction is more apparent than real. In fact, if the exact figures of exports to Pacific countries and islands could be given, they would show little, if any, decrease, despite the fact that the conditions in China have cut off some of the exports to that country, and that over purchases of cotton in Japan last year have momentarily reduced our total sales to the Yankees of the Orient. Our total exports to Asia and Oceania in the eleven months ending May, 1901, were, in round figures, $101,000,000, and those of the corresponding months of the present fiscal year only $78,000,000, an apparent shortage of $23,000,000.

This is chiefly because the Treasury Bureau has been buying for the press figures of exports to the Hawaiian Islands during the fiscal year, as the islands are now a customs district of the United States, and exporters take advantage of that fact and decline to furnish information formerly supplied under the law.

A careful study of exports to the Hawaiian Islands indicates that the total for the year will be fully $20,000,000, an this, if added to the total of exports to other Pacific Islands and countries would bring the total within $40,000,000 of last year.

TRADE WITH ENGLAND.

(BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

LONDON, July 12.—The Statist, in a series of articles examining the financial position of the United States, will say tomorrow:

"The figures of our trade with America conclusively show the enormous profits which the United States is making in foreign trade. For the first six months of the present year our imports from the United States have been nearly $63,000,000, against little over $60,000,000 in 1900.

Our exports to the United States were worth only $7,000,000, as against $8,000,000. This means that for the year ended June 30, we have bought $145,000,000 in products from the United States, while they have bought of us $18,000,000. The trade balance in favor of the United States, as respects England was £130,000,000, as against £119,000,000 for the calendar year 1900."

WILL SUPPORT JAPAN.

SECRETARY HAY'S POLICY.

(BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

WASHINGTON, July 12.—Carrying out a decision reached about a week ago, Secretary Hay today gave an instruction to Rockhill to support the Japanese application for an enlargement of their indemnity to be paid by China, from $60,000,000 to $40,000,000, to cover the depreciation in Japanese bonds, as compared with their subscription price, and yet operate premium schemes. It only aims to correct abuses which, in instance, have developed in offers of mercantile war and a practical subscription price ostensibly is $1.

Since conference with the Department of Justice, the Postmaster-General feels sure of his ground and will support the Japanese in their second-class privileges within a week or ten days. There is no disposition on the part of the department to act arbitrarily, and all persons affected will have hearings if desired.

NAVAL PROGRAMME.

SECRETARY LONG'S IDEA.

(BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

WASHINGTON, July 12.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) It is understood that Secretary of the Navy Long has already decided upon the naval programme he will recommend to Congress for the next year. Two battleships and two armored cruisers will constitute the programme which the Secretary will ask Congress to authorize in the coming session. In a limiting his recommendation to this number and class of ships, the Secretary is influenced by the evident purpose of Congress to grant only this increase.

The last naval appropriation law contained a provision directing the Secretary of the Navy to prepare designs for two battleships and two armored cruisers. In accordance with this decision, the board of construction, under the Secretary's direction, is considering the characteristics of projected ships.

ONE HUNDRED PER CENT.

TAX ON STOCKHOLDERS.

(BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

WASHINGTON, July 12.—Comptroller Dawes received the preliminary report from the receiver of the Seventh National Bank of New York City today. The receiver states that his estimate of the value of the assets is, of course, approximate. He estimates the amount which finally will be recovered for the depositors from the assets, including stockholders' assessment, at about eighty cents on the dollar.

The receiver states that his estimate of the value of the Marquand collateral is less than is claimed by the directors of the bank, and it is possible on this account, that the final collection will not be what better than the receiver's estimate.

Comptroller Dawes stated today that all transactions connected with the advance of cash to the bank just prior to its failure are being carefully investigated by the receiver, and all legal rights of the depositors will be protected in this connection. Comptroller Dawes ordered today an assessment of 100 per cent. on the $200,000 capital stock of the bank. The report of the receiver contains no reference to any of the investigations now being made into the existence of criminal infractions of the law. All these matters are under the charge of the Department of Justice.

THOMAS DAWES.

(BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

NEW YORK, July 12.—E. R. Thomas, president of the defunct Seventh National Bank, when shown the dispatch from Washington, saying that the stockholders would be assessed 100 per cent., and that would receive about 80 cents on the dollar, said that he did not care to talk about that. The directors are in practically continuous session to discuss plans of reorganization, and it is possible that they may have some statements to make in a day or two.

WILL COME HARD.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

WASHINGTON, July 12.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) A man named Rogers was shot to death by Ned Hartly Copeland in Union Pacific train No. 6 last night. Copeland was traveling from Stockton, Cal., to Council Bluffs, Iowa.

When at a point three miles east of Wamsutter he walked into the car where Rogers was sitting and at once began shooting at him, saying: "There, take that." He shot three times, the bullets entering Rogers's breast and he died instantly. Copeland was arrested and is now in jail.

When asked what caused him to kill Rogers, he replied: "He had me no notices and I had to do it."

Copeland is undoubtedly out of his mind. As the killing took place in Stockton, county Coroner will be taken to Green River and turned over to the authorities there.

THE PHILIPPINES
HOW FUNSTON GOT AGGIE.

Hero's Own Story of Engagement.

Macabebes Too Shaky to Shoot Well.

Segovia Fired on the Officers Around the Chieftain—Placido's Seizure.

BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.

WASHINGTON, July 12.—The War Department today made public Brig.-Gen. Funston's report of the capture of Aguinaldo. The report presents in detail all the facts relating to the capture of Aguinaldo, which was made public at that time in a series of documents concerning the captured correspondence of Aguinaldo, and the forged letters which were used to deceive Aguinaldo. Gen. Funston describes the actual capture as follows:

"The Macabebes started up into the town, and we heard a few shots, followed by scattered firing. We hastily crossed the river, and running upon the town, found that the Macabebes were somewhat demoralized and firing wildly in every direction.

"They were gotten under control with some difficulty. Aguinaldo's guard of about fifty armed and neatly-uniformed men, had been drawn up to receive the reinforcements, and being driven into, broke and ran, a few of them returning the fire as they were treated. Aguinaldo, with his officers, had withdrawn in his quarters, and had sent a message to the house to report their arrival, and after a short conversation, Segovia stepped outside the house, and ordered the Macabebes, who had come up from the river bank, to open fire on the insurgents, who were standing in line at a distance of about fifty yards. The Macabebes were so excited and nervous that they were very inefficient, and most of the insurgents were killed, the remainder taking flight, shooting down eighteen rifles and a thousand rounds of ammunition.

"The Macabebes had given the order, but ran back into the house and opened fire on the officers surrounding Aguinaldo. He wounded Villa and Hamra. The latter jumped out of the house into the river and was not seen again. Villa, on being wounded, surrendered, as also did Santiago Barcelos, Aguinaldo's treasurer. The remaining officers escaped from the house and swam the river.

Gen. Funston seized Aguinaldo, and told him that he was a prisoner of the Americans.

"At this juncture, the Americans arrived on the scene, and gained their attention to get the Macabebes under control, and protecting the prisoners from them. One Macabebes was slightly wounded by a gunshot wound in the forehead.

In conclusion, Gen. Funston deals justly generously to all who had shared in the expedition.

PHILIPPINE IRON IMPORTS.

BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.

WASHINGTON, July 12.—An increase of $1,035,317, or 264 per cent, in the value of manufactured iron and steel imported into the Philippines during 1900 is shown in a comparative statement made public today by the Division of Insular Affairs, War Department.

During 1900 these imports were valued at $14,285,551, as against $23,636 for 1900. The imports of these commodities from the United States increased from $30,321 in 1899 to $13,626 in 1900. Most of the iron and steel used in the Philippines came from the United Kingdom, with Germany next.

LIEUT. MASSEY DEAD.

BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.

WASHINGTON, July 12.—Gen. Chaffee has cabled the War Department the death of First Lieutenant Solon F. Massey, retired, who died at Manila at 3 o'clock this morning of dysentery.

Lieut. Massey was an employee of the Quartermaster's Department, in charge of burial matters. He was appointed to the Military Academy in 1873 from Ohio, and retired in 1891 for disability.

WHAT WEARIES ENGLAND.

London Journal Recapitulates Some of the Things Which Make Englishmen Tired.

[London Mail:] We have got to this: every morning there rises in the marrow from his New England folding bed, shaves with Connecticut soap and a Yankee razor, pulls on his Boston boots over his socks from North Carolina, fastens his Hartford braces, slips his Waltham or Waterbury watch in his pocket, and sits down to breakfast. There he congratulates his wife on the way she has dressed him, and takes off his Massachusetts blouse, and eats bread made from prairie flour (possibly doctored at the special establishment on the lake), and oysters from the Pacific Coast, and a slice of Kansas City bacon, while his wife plays with a slice of Chicago ox tongue. The children are given Puritan oats. At the same time he reads his morning paper printed by American machines and possibly on American paper.

"There was no friction between Gen. MacArthur and myself when I was in command in the Philippines. Gen. MacArthur was a subordinate officer, and how could there be any friction between a subordinate officer and his superior?"

"Gen. MacArthur once recommended that I issue a proclamation of amnesty to all who surrendered, and a declaration that any one who should kill an American soldier thereafter would be considered a murderer. I declined to act on that recommendation, but don't remember my exact words. I might have told him that no further advice on this subject was desired by the commanding general. That is the thing that is frequently necessary for a subordinate officer to do."

"The time was not ripe for the facts which Gen. MacArthur advanced in support of his recommendation had in any small part of the island, and had no adequate means of making such a proclamation known to the natives, who were not under our immediate control."

MISSIONARY CONFERENCE.

Close of Session at the Trinity Methodist-Episcopal Church, South closed yesterday afternoon. Mrs. M. L. Ottoly read the paper of the afternoon, taking as her text the "One Talent."

Devotional exercises and the address of the Rev. M. E. Sharbrough occupied the morning session. Mr. Sharbrough gave a short talk from the great conference held at New Orleans last April. He addressed himself particularly to the women, saying that every woman without a family to look after should give her time to church work. He said that women were too selfish and declared they must get over their exclusiveness if they wish to Christianize the masses.

CROWN AND BRIDGE BUILDERS AT TERMINAL.

LAST FUNCTION OF DENTISTS' STATE CONVENTION.

Brilliant Banquet and Dance at Brighton Beach Hotel—Men of Southland Entertain Visiting Brothers of the Profession and Their Ladies.

Down at Terminal by the sea under a mass of iridescent illumination the California Dental Association had last evening the concluding function of its annual convention.

The members of the association and ladies spent yesterday afternoon in a trolley drive about Los Angeles, and for the seaside on the 5 o'clock afternoon train by the Salt Lake Railroad.

The Southern California Dental Association and the Alumni Dental Society of Los Angeles gave a banquet at the Brighton Beach Hotel to the visiting members of the California State Dental Association. More than two hours were occupied in demolishing the menu, which was as follows:

California oyster cocktail.

Steamed clams.

Olivas.

Salted almonds.

Fried filet of sole, sauterne sauce.

Fried filet of beef, jardiniere.

Fried spring chicken.

French peas.

Julien potatoes.

Crab salad, with mayonnaise.

Individual brick ice cream.

Assorted cake.

French coffee.

Over the fragrant aroma of the coffee was called for by Dr. D. Cave of Los Angeles, who acted as master of ceremonies. Dr. Cave made a brief speech, in which he referred briefly to the fact that the first convention of the association in the western United States had been attended by men from the neighborhood of San Francisco and beyond. He called upon Dr. Garrett Newkirk of Los Angeles to respond to "Our Guests."

"We wish our guests to believe," said Dr. Newkirk, "that our hospitality is warm, that our climate and as fresh as our own here." Dr. Cave told some humorous stories, which kept the company in a roar.

Dr. A. M. Barker of San Jose, president-elect of the society, spoke on "The California State Dental Association."

TIEN-TSIN, July 12.—James A. Ragsdale, American Consul here, has sentenced three American looters, caught in the Chinese quarter of the city, to four years' imprisonment on the Whang-Ho River. The total would amount to 12,000 barrels a month and be sold for two months' take precedence over the output of the members of the association.

A number of local well owners do not see the advantage to them in entering any such contract with the storage companies, and are of the opinion that as far as bettering the price of oil by the plan suggested there seems to be little hope of so doing. They believe that the solution offered by the storage company is not the right one for the association, and should be rejected, and may so notify the association.

An informal meeting of a chosen few was held last evening to discuss the situation and another will be held in the near future to consider the same.

The oil men not with the combine fully appreciate the efforts made by the association's committees in solving the very complex problem of handling the local oil, but will suggest that other means be adopted.

DOCTOR WHEELER STILL PURSUED HER.

Death of the Beautiful Miss Hayes of Los Angeles the End of an Exciting Romance.

MRS. J. C. BROWN—Dear Mama: Our dear Miss Hayes is dead. She died in San Francisco.

Little Jasper Brown, 5 years old, had answered the 'phone in the absence of his mother, and in answer to "anything you want?" received the following reply:

"Tell your mama Miss Hayes was found dead in San Francisco."

Tearless with grief, little Jasper jammed the 'phone back into its place, went out into the yard and plucked a fragrant garland of honeysuckle. With this he decorated the portrait of beautiful Miss Hayes on the center-table, then with the pathetic little note to his mama, placed before the picture, and went on into the kitchen.

Thus it was that Mrs. J. C. Brown, wife of Attorney J. C. Brown, who resides at Westlake avenue and Winfield street, received first notice of the death of her most intimate friend, Miss Helen Hayes, at the Renton in San Francisco, a brief account of which was given in yesterday morning's Times.

THE SEQUEL.

The sequel, now first printed, tells of an old love affair, a flight from an impetuous admirer, a clandestine meeting with him in the North—and then the sudden death of the beautiful books. He is said to have borrowed $175 from one lady, and at last accounts still owed her $155.

Wheeler is reported to have been paying marked attention to several other ladies, and when she went, at least one of whom he had agreed to marry. He made formal request, it is said, to the mother of another young lady, for privilege to visit her daughter, but was refused because of rumors involving her as above recounted.

The last known address of Miss Hayes is no other than Miss Helen Hayes, whose mysterious death is reported from San Francisco. She left Minneapolis and came to Los Angeles, and it is not too much to suppose that she was sent here by Dr. Wheeler, in the hope that she might be weaned from the infatuation that seems to have taken possession of her.

Beautiful, accomplished, an ideal teacher, a graduate of the University of Minnesota, Miss Hayes found ready entrance into the social and educational circles of Los Angeles. Wide inquiry fails to elicit anything save the most fragmentary information concerning her beauty, her position, and her acquirements. She taught two years in the Spring-street school and one year in Sentous-street school, where she taught music, composition, etc. She was with Miss Hayes constantly. Dr. Theodore Wheeler, formerly of Los Angeles, and now a student at the Eclectic Medical College, was a frequent caller. The report that he was engaged to Miss Hayes is denied by her friends.

L

LOCAL CAPITAL MAKES A CITY IN MEXICO.

MODERN OIL MINING CAMP IN THE JUNGLE.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Doheny, Returning From the Southland, Tell of the Marvelous Development There by the Mexican Petroleum Company.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Doheny have just returned from a month's trip which included a journey to the oil lands of the Mexican Petroleum Company, in the State of Vera Cruz, Mexico, and from thence by way of Chicago, where they visited for business reasons, to Pittsburgh, Pa., where they spent several days visiting with their friends, Mr. and Mrs. W. Harry Brown. From there, they visited Philadelphia, the former home and birthplace of Mrs. Doheny. Several weeks were spent in New York City vicinity, and at Boston. Returning westward they visited the Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo, arriving there, fortunately for them, before the hot weather set in. Mr. and Mrs. Doheny took pleasure in informing The Times that the Southern California exhibit does great credit both to the locality which is represented, and to the gentleman in charge of the exhibit.

The red-and-white and orange-and-white badges were numerous on the streets yesterday, and will be more so today. A great influx is expected today, and while the number of visitors can only be estimated, the lowest figures mentioned are 2500. Some local Methodists say probably 6000 Leaguers will spend the Sabbath in this vicinity.

AT CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

The Chamber of Commerce kept "open house" all day yesterday, and a constant stream of easertakers viewed the exhibits and partook of lemonade served in the reception-room.

Tonight the chamber will tender the Leaguers a public reception at the hall, corner of Fourth street and Broadway. Mayor M. P. Snyder and Nathan Newell were present at the opening, and responses will be made by Rev. F. J. Berry of Chicago and Judge F. D. Fuller of Nashville, Tenn.

Prominent Los Angeles divines, church members and Epworth Leaguers made it their force to extend the glad hand and light refreshments will be served.

BIG SUNDAY RALLY.

The principal event of the visit will be the grand rally at the First Methodist Church, corner of Hill and Sixth streets, Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Nationally-prominent Methodists will speak, and a great outpouring is expected.

Monday and Tuesday many of the delegates will proceed northward, while visits to points of interest in and out of the city will be provided for those who remain and fresh arrivals.

Among the visitors to the Pan-American Exposition were Mr. and Mrs. Doheny, return to home to Los Angeles via the Canadian Pacific to Vancouver, B. C.; thence via Seattle, Portland, San Francisco to Los Angeles.

Their journey covered a period of sixty days, of which forty-eight days were either wholly or partly spent on the ocean, and the distance covered being nearly 15,000 miles.

Of his visit to the Mexican Petroleum Company's property in Mexico, Mr. Doheny has to say, that, while there, they journeyed westward to Chicago. The desire to avoid the hot, dusty trip across the country by either of the southern routes, led Mr. and Mrs. Doheny to return home to Los Angeles via the Canadian Pacific to Vancouver, B. C.; thence via Seattle, Portland, San Francisco to Los Angeles.

INTEREST ON SAVINGS BANK REPORTS. Rumors of a reduction in the savings bank rate on deposits at New York are revived. Informal telephones have been heard to the effect that the American Banker, but it was not considered advisable to make any of the six months now ended, any bank officials agree that a lower rate of interest in almost a certainty for the next six months. The New State taxes, which became effective July 1, the maturing of 6 per cent. of our bonds on that date, the general tendency to lower rates of interest everywhere, will be taken into account by the banks individually by the State Association of Banks. It appears to be likely that there will be a general agreement among the banks to pay out to 2.5 per cent. city bonds, amounting to about $15,000,000, of which $8,850,000 is held by the New York savings banks, now recently refunded at 3.50 per cent.

SUGAR LOWERED. All grades of sugar were reduced 10 cents per 100 pounds yesterday morning. It is unusual to cheapen sugar in the midst of the fruit-preserving season.

BALTIMORE CANNED PEAS. The special correspondent of the New York Commercial, under date of June 28, sends up the Baltimore canned-peas situation in this interesting letter, which is of timely interest to the grower and results in a great many shipments than the average number. Rheumatism, nervous affection of the liver and kidneys are directly traceable through the source of these overlooked and hidden in a list of names under which many conceal maladies that have origin. The Chinese have rare and cures that are the greatest known to man which will be packed by the small packers, but they will amount to very little.

The packing of marrowfat or sugar snap practically ceases with the closing of today. There will be from now on no more string lots of peas which will be packed by the small packers, but they will amount to very little.

The Baltimore pea packers for many a day to come will remember the season of 1901. If they never received a lesson before, they have surely been taught one this time. However, we will not go into the details of the packing of the peas, but the price of high prices for the raw material by the Baltimore canner, but still upon the existing conditions, which are not at all favorable for this particular class of peas, will take care of the same — but it is going to be difficult to dispose of the standard and seconds at a fair price.

With the introduction of favorable conditions and low prices from the West for the standard early Junees, as well as their cheap grades, it will surely curtail the buying from this market.

There is another feature which seems to be a prominent one this year, and that is the large quantity of green peas put up by the country packers. Of course they are irregular and handle poorly, but at the same time the quality of the peas is not good.

There has been a determined effort to sell these goods, and as they are not in great demand, the Baltimore packers have agreed to stand aside. They will be disposed of before the middle and seconds of the Baltimore market.

Hundreds of people are engaged in the past few days in getting these to their present and future markets.

Some of these goods are not being sold on the market. The packers are on the spot. Every effort is being made to ascertain every detail, and the attendants grant every one who gives complete information, a letter on request.

AMERICAN MACARONI. The Department of State has received from Paul Hayden in Italy a report on the use of American wheat for Italian macaroni, saying:

"After efforts I have succeeded in demonstrating the fact that the very best quality of macaroni can be made of American wheat. This has been deemed an impossibility by those engaged in the production of macaroni in this district. Up to the present time Italian wheat and wheat from the Orient have been used, together with flour, for the production of the article of food in the American market being considered too soft."

Through the cooperation of one of the largest establishments in this district, it has been found that the consumption was based upon the proverbial conservatism of the people. When it comes to the use of wheat for macaroni, it is found that here is an undescribable importance.

"It has been suggested to me that the United States government would not be free of duty, or at least at a very low rate than the present rate of macaroni made from American wheat, a market for our wheat would be opened in competition with that of the Orient and the East. The present tariff on 100 pounds of macaroni is $15. in 1900, and the present tariff on 100 pounds of wheat is $0.00 per cent. The proposed 50 per cent. of the said 100 pounds would enter free, leaving 40 per cent to be taxed at the present rate of 10 cents per pound, making on the 100 pounds $1.00 extra.

"It should be remembered in this connection that Italian manufacturers of macaroni under the scheme proposed have to pay freight from the Orient to the Orient, and also pay freight on the same when it is sent into macaroni and transported to the United States."

MAIN-TROLLEY LINE WANTED IN ORANGE.

BRANCH OF THE INTERURBAN NOT VIEWED WITH FAVOR.

Company Desires Direct Route and Shortest Possible Running Time Between Los Angeles and Santa Ana—Committee Waits Upon Directorate.

ORANGE, July 12.—[From The Times' Resident Correspondent.] The citizens have held an evening to discuss the street-car situation, it having been learned that the interurban company intends building direct from Santa Ana to Anaheim, and on through Fullerton and Whittier to Los Angeles, thus leaving Orange off the main line, to be connected by a branch road. This arrangement does not suit the Orange people, and the meeting last evening which was attended by many of the interurban's retainers, as well as by Manager Tolle, or the Interurban company, was the consequence.

Mr. Tolle said that his company deemed it advisable to make the running direct between Los Angeles and Santa Ana as short as possible, and consequently desired as direct a route as possible. It would make a longer route to go by way of Orange, so the company, after careful consideration, came to the conclusion that it would be better to build the main line direct to Los Angeles, and then, where necessary, run branches out to towns of sufficient importance for the accommodation of the public.

But the residents of Orange want the main line, and what is more, they think they are entitled to it. They are willing to do their part in securing it, and to that end Mr. Tolle, Mr. W. C. Clegg, R. M. Cradick and Mr. Davis, together with manager Tolle, went to Los Angeles today to confer with the directors of the company with a view of getting the main line through here.

The Legislature made an appropriation of $40,000 for the purpose. T. H. Goff of San Bernardino gets the contract. The board of managers for the superintendent's cottage, which is to cost $5000, was awarded to Thomas McCarthy of Los Angeles.

Those present from the north were: F. W. Hatch, M.D., general superintendent of State Hospitals; J. C. Crane, M.D., superintendent of New York State Hospital; A. PUBLIC CONCERTS.

REDLANDS, July 12.—[From The Times' Resident Correspondent.] Band concerts during the summer months in Redlands are highly appreciated, but people do not like to go to the city of town as the end of the street-car line at Terracina, although they did reward the company's enterprise by furnishing as many passengers as could be carried when the concerts were held there. J. S. Süss conceived the idea last week of holding the concerts in town, so that everybody can go. To that end he went out after subscriptions last Tuesday, and got $75 in less than half an hour. He then arranged with the band for six concerts, the first of which will be given next Wednesday evening. The place has not yet been decided upon, but it will probably be "The Triangle." The Redlands Club is a good organization, and everybody will be glad of an opportunity to hear the band.

AMERICAN LITERATURE AND AMERICAN LIFE.

IV.—COMMON FOLK IN FICTION.

(By Arlo Bates, professor of English Literature, Massachusetts Institute of Technology.)

The multitude of common folk included among the characters in fiction has been one of the striking features of the literature of the last twenty-five years of the nineteenth century. The study of country life and those which have dealt with the sums of towns the figures of the uneducated, the poor, the degraded, the uncultivated, have increased from year to year, until it has sometimes seemed almost as if members of the classes which in real life are privileged above their fellows were likely to be excluded altogether from the world of the imagination, and novelists had been put under a spell to paint only the existence of the poor or degraded.

More than one great novelist has tried to make his mark in the success in the portrayal of people in common life.

George Eliot, Jeanie Doherty, and Scott's best work is in the characters belonging to the lower ranks of society.

Sir Walter himself good-naturedly recognized the fact that his heroes and heroines, his lords and ladies, were constantly secondary to his servants, his beggars and rascals.

He understood perfectly that Caleb Balderstone,

Edith Ochiltree, Jeanie Doherty, and Scott's best work is in the characters belonging to the lower ranks of society.
